Resolutions adopted by the Knozville Convention. 1st. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention, the Charters of the Louisville, Cincinnati and Charleston Rail Road should be accopted, and should alternations or amendments hereafter be found necessary, that applications be made therefor to the Legislatures of the States granting the same; and this Convention hereby urges upon the said States the expediency of granting such application, should the same be made, and can entertain no doubt of the disposition which will be folt by the Legislatures of said States to comply with all reasonable requests which may be made, by the Company when the same shall be formed.

2d. Besolved, That in the opinion of this Convention, a practicable route for a Rail Road has been found for connecting the City of Charleston and the Cities of Cincinnati Maysville, and Louisville, and that the same may be constructed at a reasonable cost, and entirely within the means of the several States interested therein. 3d. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Con vention, the amount of transportation and travelling on said Road will increase for an indefinite period of time, and that it will from the completion of the Road, be such as to render its estianated cost a profitable investment.

4th. Resolved, That we consider the Louisvillo Cincinnati, and Charleston Rall-Road as a work eminently entitled to the patronage and support of the States through which will it pass, or which may be interested therein; and as from the national character great cost and magnitude of the work, it could hardly be expected that it should be earried through by private enterprise alone, we would respectfully, and do hereby most earnestly appeal to the said States for liberal appropriations towards carrying on the great work, which when completed will be an enduring monument of their wisdom and patriotism.

5th. Resolved, That we consider the fund which will be put at the disposal of said States by the division among them of the Surplus Rev. enue of the Union, as peculiarly applicable to this great work, which passing through several states, will open a channel to the most extensive social and commercial intercourse between the Western States bordering on the Ohio, and the Great Lakes, and the States on the South Atlantic, and the Gulph of Mexico, thereby strengthening the bonds of our Union, and promoting the prosperity and happiness of a large and most int resting portion of our common country. This Convention does therefore carnestly appeal to said States, to appropriate and set apart the said fund or so much thereof as may be necessary for that purpose, and to cause the same to be faithfully applied to the execution of the proposed Road. It is presumed that the States of Tennessee Kentucky, Ohio, North Carolina, and South Carolina cannot receive under the distribution Bill, the first year, less than nine millions of dollars, a sum nearly sufficient to make the Road; and should Georgia, Alabama, Virginia and Indiana become interested in it by lateral Roads, the whole ation of the surplus of only a single year.

We call upon the States therefore for the promotion of their own best interests, and for the sake of their posterity, not to suffer the wer's to

6th. Resolved, That viewing the proposed Road as one of vast importance to the people of the Southern and Western States, we hold them bound by every consideration of interest and duty, to come forward to its support, by subscribing for Stock when Books shall be opened in Oc. tober next; nor can we entertain a doubt, that should the Road be completed at an early day, by the vigorous and united efforts of the people and the States interested therein, that it will amply remunerate them for the capital invest d.

7th. Resolved, That in publishing these Reso. lutions and the Proceedings of this Convention, the same to be accompanied by an Address to be prepared and published in the name and behalf of this Convention, embodying and enforcing these views, and urging in the strongest manner upon the States and the people the duty of carrying the great work into effect.

The New York Star says-w know nothing more liberal on the part of the do mant talents of our country, than their unexam oled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 183 says, "the Saturday Courier. is decidedly the best Window glass 8 x 10 Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable 'reading matter' than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columes in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in A fire occurred on the night of the 14th | the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION. Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splended Annua! the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature, A large number of songs poems tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick author of Hope Leslie. The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and a broad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER is strictly neutral in religious and political matters and the uncompromising opponent of quaker of every kind.
